ORDER

The petitioners apprehend imminent arrest in Crime No.344/2007 of Venjaramoodu Police Station registered, initially in connection with the unnatural death of their daughter in law. The learned Public Prosecutor after taking instructions submits that the investigation does not reveal the complicity of the petitioner so far. In these circumstances, the Investigators have no intention to arrest the petitioners at all. If the petitioners were required to be arrested at any later stage of the investigation, the Police can seek appropriate directions from this Court, submits the learned Public Prosecutor.

2. In these circumstances, accepting the above submissions of the learned Public Prosecutor, this application for regular bail is dismissed. If the petitioner were to be arrested at any later stage, in connection with this crime, prior permission shall be taken by the Investigating Officer.

(R.BASANT, JUDGE)
